Enjoy Explore Relax

Your air-conditioned Executive Poolside Suite with separate lounge and dining room – plunge bath.

Cool splendour. A balmy evening, a chilled drink at the pool and Aqua Bar – tropical bliss.

Rapopo's Planters' Verandah Dining Room & Bar. Gourmet fare from sea and land.

Poolside Executive Wing and fully equipped conference/board room. All air-conditioned.

Explore the eerie mysteries of sixty-five Japanese war ships lying in silent repose in the crystal waters of Simpson Harbour.

Snorkel from Rapopo's private beach, take a helicopter flight to the Pigeon Islands or just laze around the pool pampered by Rapopo's friendly and attentive staff.

Tour the once beautiful Rabaul now a devastated victim of Nature's volcanic wrath. "Pompeii" by the sea!

And at the end of the day, return to Rapopo's luxurious air conditioned suites, savour its unique cuisine and perhaps a "Planter's Rum Delight" on the balcony of the Plantation House Bar and Restaurant.

For the visitor to Papua New Guinea, a stay at Rapopo Plantation Resort, once the site of a Japanese fighter airstrip, is a must. Centrally located on the Gazelle Peninsula on the Island of New Britain, one of the most beautiful and exotic islands in the South Pacific. Looking across Simpson Harbour, the rim of an ancient volcano to Rabaul, the area is a wonderland above and below water.
